He came to a sharp turn and met this American car, which was on the wrong side of the road. The accused smashed into him, damaging his car to the extent of $50. GIVE THANKS TO GOD

Britain and the Empire have been at war a year, and if there was any doubt of the outcome then, it has been dispelled by now. Within the year things have happened in the Old Land and here, and while as yet ye haven't hit our full stride, we are fast moving in that direction. With increased aid from the States, the French Colonial Empire and all those multitudes who have been trodden underfoot the next twelve months should see the initiative wrestled from Herr Hitler and his allies.

Next Sunday has been set aside as a day of prayer, when the Empire will give thanks to God for his blessings. It behooves us all to attend the services at our respective churches.

BACK AT IT

School's on-not alone for the scholars who have been enjoying the summer vacation period-but for all of us. With the advent of September, business and social life about town takes on a normal aspect, while we endeavour to forget the days of leisure and buckle down to the old grind once more.

The appeal we make is an annual one, and one that is ofttimes overlooked and forgotten by those who are responsible for sending the news of your organization into the press. Again we would ask that the press representatives of various societies get off on the right foot this fall by having the notices in our office in good time.

About 11 o'clock Thursday is the time chosen by the vast majority to call up and inquire if they can get an item in this week's issue. We are indeed pleased to have the activities of town and district reported, but a little consideration would be appreciated.

"TWELVE O'CLOCK, AND ALL'S WELL!"

(From "The Constitution," Atlanta, Ga.) There must be today, millions of spirits that walk, bravely, across the length and breadth of beleaguered Britain. The spirits of those men of the ancient race who gave to her the greatness that is knowing miraculous resurgence as, once more, the fate of human liberty is laid upon her hands and hearts and courage.

It is good to think that, among those spirits, walk the ancient watchmen of the night, carrying their lanterns to light the dark hours and crying, as they walk, "Twelve o'clock and all's well." All's well with Britain, as her sons and daughters stand, undaunted, a final rampart to the ruthless foe. All's well because the tongue of Chaucer, of Shakespeare, of Milton, of Keats, of Shelley, of Kipling, of Tennyson, of Barrie, of the King James translation of the Scriptures, can never be the tongue of an enslaved race. All's well because the blood of Frobisher, of Drake, of millions of fighting men who have died to keep Britain free, can never course through the veins of an enslaved people.

All's well because the passion of human liberty and human rights that inspired the men of Runnymede, that set aflame the hearts of men who dared their all that tyranny should be crushed, that forced British democracy ever to march on, side by side and step by step with the growth of empire, can never be quenched under the oppression of any master.

All's well in Britain because the common people are aroused, because from the ordinary, average people, from whom England's greatest have ever come, there still arises that determination, that bulldog stubbornness, that unconquerable spirit which cannot live enslaved.

The wisest seers among men cannot say what yet is to come. But this all men may know: There is a very lovely heart of civilization and of freedom threatened by an obscene force, an indecent return to savagery sparked by unmoral ambition. The shadow today lies over an ancient and a noble land. It darkens the graves of poets and philosophers and martyrs. It hangs, threatening, over the very birthplace of human liberty and human progress.

The vultures soar over England's green fields and stately homes, they swoop upon the humble cots and quiet

We on this side can know little of the one factor that must, in the final accounting, decide the issue. That is, the spirit of a people awakened and determined. There must be a marvellous story, being told on the pages of history, in Britain today. The spectacle of a people arising as one, to defend to death the land they hold so dear, must be a tremendous thing to watch.

Even Hitler has been awed. What other interpretation can be put upon his petulant and ridiculous complaint that "home guards" can be only violators of the code of war, to be shot against a wall when captured. The world has never witnessed such absurd effrontery as an appeal, by this man, to any code of war. He, and Germany, of all races, have most ruthlessly and heartlessly scorned the codes of war, of honor, of humanity, of human decency, wherever it served their foul purpose.

Hitler cannot conquer Britain. We who know the history and the spirit and the meaning of British civilization, we who know the courage that arms her people, we who know the love of country that fills their souls, know that no invader can stay alive on English soil so long as one Englishman remains alive to strike a blow for freedom.

There can be but one outcome when the British people have arisen, moved by a single impulse, to defend

This royal throne of kings, this sceptred isle, This earth of majesty, this seat of Mars, This other Eden, demi-paradise; This fortress, built by Nature for herself, Against infection and the hand of war, This happy breed of men, this little world, This precious stone set in the silver sea, Which serves it in the office of a wall

Or as a moat defensive to a house-Against the envy of less happier lands-This blessed plot, this earth, this realm, This England.

The vultures gather, but still the spirit of the ancient watchman walks in England and still his brave voice reassures,

"Twelve o'clock, and all's well!"

NOTE AND COMMENT

Those fifty over-age destroyers will mean a lot to Britain for convoy work-and the Germans very well know it.

This section of York County was again well to the fore with wins at the C.N.E., and the endeavours covered practically every field of endeavour.

There is no doubt that the German army will suffer least from shortage of food. Rations scraped up from all the occupied territories and from what little trade Germany retains will largely go to the fighting forces. Then will come German munitions workers and others serving in vital wartime industries, and after that the German people at large. What is left over-if there is anything-will be doled out for the peoples of occupied territories .- Family Herald and Weekly Star.

"DEATH DRIVERS" TO PERFORM IN TORONTO

"A congress of daring and death cheating" and an educational demonstration of motoring safety is the strange combination which the famous "Bill" Judson and his Death Drivers will bring to the Ulster Stadium in Toronto from September 16 to 21. Judson's advice to the motoring public is "Be Safe—Drive Safe— Leave Accidents to the Death Drivers," and he and his cast of 90 take their lives in their hands every day to prove that if you are a careless and reckless driver on the highway, you can't win.

The program of the Death Drivers reads like the annual accident list released by the Department of Highways—skids and rolls, one-arm driving, running fight between police and gangsters, driver trapped in blazing car, head-on collision, side swipe, flaming wall crash, death drag, blow out, run-over, flying car and power dive, and the T-bone crash, which Judson calls the "junkman's delight."

Thirteen of the events in Judson's three-hour show are exclusive with his outfit, and are not performed by any other driv ing exhibition.

"We will be in Toronto for one full week," stated Judson, "twice daily at Ulster Stadium, rain or shine, from September 16 to 21, and will turn over a portion of our receipts to a war fund so that we may buy more bullets, more shells, more planes, more tanks and more ambulances to halt the march of Hitler and Mussolini and their tyrannical rule."

One rubber company reports that a fast increasing use of rubber is for making sponge rubber kneeling pads used in churches.

It is then that the farmer appreciates the real value of farm machine service as rendered by Massey-Harris. FIND TWO BOYS LOST ON LAKE

Reach Michigan Shore in Gale-Swept Launch

Missing four days when their power boat was blown 175 miles off its course in a heavy storm, two boys of the Gore Bay district were located late Thursday at Delour, Mich.

The boys, John Currey of Gore Bay, and William McGenerty, left Blind River last Sunday night in their 18-foot cruiser. Engine trouble developed during the storm and the boat drifted 175 miles to Drummond Island.

There the boys obtained another boat and crossed the narrow channel to Detour, where young Currey phoned his father. The boys were hungry and exhausted when their boat grounded on Drummond Island.

The boat was not seriously damaged when it ran aground. The boys walked along the shore until they came to a settlement.

Last week-end the boys went to Blind River and at 7 o'clock Sunday evening they checked out of the hotel there and started back for Gore Bay. Their trip was across fifty miles of stormy channel waters between Manitoulin Island and the mainland.

Two airplanes were engaged early in the week to aid in the search, às well as numerous power-boats.

A new industry is expected to locate in Aurora within the near future to help bolster the industrial situation within the town it was revealed at a meeting Friday night in the town hall.

SPORTS DAY ENTRIES CUT BY WEATHER

Attendance Suffers at Keswick's First Annual Event-Water Contests Are Popular

Cold, damp weather, with the occasional drizzle, kept attendance at the first annual Keswick sports day down to a minimum. It also caused the postponement of many carded events, due to lack of entries. Only a few hundred of the expected 4,000 visited the park for the numerous events on the large sports program.

Feature of the program, which found instant favor with the crowd that lined the waterfront, was the surf-boat riding event which was won by Victor Hill in the junior section, and Johnny Pringle in the senior. Both these men successfully negotiated the quarter-mile trip across a smooth lake without mishap. Swimming races also attracted much attention, although it was more like football weather than swimming weather. All swimmers shivered on leaving the water and were anxious to grab extra clothing to keep themselves warm. In the event for girls from eight to twelve, Shirley Fry was first and Gwyn Costan second. In the older girls' class, Eleanor Clark finished ahead of her two competitors, Elizabeth O'Neil, who just outlasted Bernice Cowie.

Jimmy Kelly finished in first place in the swim for boys up to 12 years of age, with Tom Hill a close second. In the older boys' class, Bruce Williams and Tom battled on even terms for most of the 200-yard trip. Williams forged in front as they reached the finishing line.

In the men's swim, Tom Hamilton, Sr., led Fred McGirl adjudged winner of the beauty throughout the whole trip, al- contest. Miss Cowie had prevthough only inches separated jousty finished third in the girls' them for most of the journey.

The sound of the thresher is heard in the land, and unless all signs fail, there will be an abunbe stored.

on the birthday itself, Miss been by rain whips lashed,

Mr. Francis and Master Stuart Starr took tea with their grand- and old. mother.

On Wednesday of last week a little surprise party took place in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Brown. Her neighbours and friends, taking their supper with them, arrived at her home about three o'clock, and amidst the signs which are inevitable when a home is being broken up, settled down and had a delightful afternoon. Those present were, Mrs. R. Penrose, Mrs. Mastin, Mrs. McDonald, Miss Newton, Mrs. Norman Rogers (Yonge street), Mrs. Smith, Mrs. L. Harper, Mrs. A. M. Colville, Mrs. West (Toronto), Mrs. Stickwood and little son, and the Misses Frances Stickwood, Irene Harper, Doris Penrose and Isabel Rogers. Following supper, Mrs. McDonald made a speech in which she spoke of how much her friends would miss Mrs. Brown, who was a good neighbour and a good friend. Little talks in a similar vein, were given by a representative from each home gathered there, and at the conclusion, Miss Newton presented Mrs. Brown with a very lovely cameo pendant and chain.

Brown, although completely taken by surprise, expressed her thanks in a very appropriate little speech of thanks.

When, with the other members of their party, Mrs. Gordon and Mr. Orley McClure returned home, they brought with them, along with the memory of the northland, two more tangible momentoes of their trip-a bear skin and a Persian kitten. The bear skin bore mute evidence of Orley's prowess, and the small Persian slept peacefully on Mrs. McClure's knees during the 12hour journey.

Mrs. D. Evans, Bogarttown, spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Miss Doris Wilson, who has been a member of Mr. and Mrs. Needler's family for the past few months, left to take a position at Holt on Wednesday of last week.
